In May 1851 he was appointed Commandant of an irregular corps of Europeans, designated "Catty's Rifles," and during thirteen months of the most active period of operations this corps did good and gallant service, being engaged in nearly every patrol of the 2nd Division, the same being frequently acknowledged in General Orders, and the various reports of Commanders of Divisions. On the disbandment of "Catty's Rifles," he rejoined his Regt. (the 6th), and proceeded with the expedition against the paramount chief Krel, and on his return to head-quarters was appointed to the command of Fort Grey, which he held till the cessation of hostilities, during which period, besides rendering the post perfectly defensible, wagons and cattle, which were on three occasions taken by the enemy and driven off, were recaptured by the garrison under Capt. Catty. Was twice severely wounded by musket balls in the Boomah Pass.

In 1808 with the Corps of Sir David Baird from Corunna to Sahagun, and in the retreat under Sir John Moore. In 1809 with the Light Division in the march from Lisbon to Talavera, where he became Adjutant of the 43rd. Served as Aide-de-Camp to General Robert Craufurd during 1809 and 1810, and was present in the numerous affairs that took place between the Coa and Ageda, and severely wounded at the action of Almeida. Served at the siege of Ciudad Rodrigo, and at the assault of the Fort and of the place. Stood with General Craufurd when, in the assault, he placed himself on the crest of the glacis, where he fell mortally wounded. Was the bearer of the Duke of Wellington's summons to the Governor demanding the surrender of the place. Served with the 43rd at the siege and storming of Badajoz, during the investment of the forts of Salamanca, the advance and retreat from that place to the Douro, the action of Salamanca, and the investment of the Retiro and occupation of Madrid. Reconnoitred for the line of march of the Division on the 17th of June from Piermont and the Ligny Road, crossing the Dyle at Ways, a line of march separate from the rest of the Army, and a movement of great delicacy, being performed in open day in presence of Napoleon's advance. On the 18th of June was allowed, in presence of the Duke of Wellington, to form the Division in an order of battle new and unusual, that of oblongs in echecquer, to meet the formidable masses of Cavalry seen forming in its front, and in this formation the Division resisted repeatedly, with perfect success, attacks of Cavalry and Artillery probably as formidable as any known in military history. On the 18th was struck on the side and disabled for some time; and had one horse killed and one wounded. Commanded at Calais, during the three years of the Army of Occupation, the establishment formed there to keep up the communication between the Army and England. Facing Green.—Agents, Messrs. Cox & Co. Irish Agents, Sir E. R. Borough, Bt., Armit & Co. [Returned from Corfu, 20 Sept. 1857. Embarked for India, Dec. 1857.]

1 Lt. General Mansel served in the Mediterranean, the Peninsula, and St. Helena, and was very severely wounded at Toulouse, for which battle he has the War Medal with one Clasp. He subsequently served on the Staff in Ireland, latterly as the Head of the Quarter-Master-General's Department and in command of the Southern District. He afterwards commanded the S.E. Division of England. While on the Staff in Ireland, he rendered important services to the Government, which were acknowledged by the highest civil and military authorities, especially during the rebellion of 1848, being specially employed amongst other duties in transferring State prisoners from the Mills to the ships for conveyance to the penal settlements, in the presence of a large insurgent mob, when he acted in a double capacity as commanding the large Military force employed and as a Civil Magistrate. General Mansel was the Originator of the Military Prison system, in reference to which the following lines are extracted from the report of Earl Cathcart's Committee:—"We have great satisfaction in stating that it is to the extraordinary exertions, to the zeal, devotedness and integrity of that most valuable and excellent Officer, Colonel Mansel, that the Service and the Government are indebted for the maintenance and establishment of a system of discipline with means which were wholly inadequate for effecting that which has been accomplished by him. It is quite apparent that without Colonel Mansel's personal superintendence, and the time and trouble he has, for five years, gratuitously devoted to the important object, it would have been impossible to have succeeded."

Major); commanded the Light Company in nearly all the principal actions in Kaffirland and in the Colony, as also at the battle of Berea: served at different periods during the operations as Field Adjutant and as D. Col. Gawler's Kaffirs. For the foregoing services he received the public thanks of the Cape Government and was gazetted Lt. Colonel in the Army on 18th Feb. 1859. Served in the closing affairs of the Indian Mutiny. Towards the end of 1860 he commanded as Brigadier a considerable field force against the Rajah of Sikhim; took the Rajah's residence, forced him to submit to the terms of a treaty dictated by the British Envoy, and penetrated to the Thiber frontier: for his "ability, energy, and good judgment" he received the thanks of the Governor General in Council, "fully concurred" in by the British Government.

On the 22nd June 1806, he was in one of the boats of His Majesty's Ship Minerva, cutting out five vessels from under Fort Finisterre; and on the 11th July following he was in the barge which, when 50 miles from where the frigate lay at anchor, captured by boarding the Buena Dicha Spanish privateer, of three times the force of the boat, after a sharp conflict: this attack was planned by General Menzies. Commanded and headed the Marines at the storming of Fort Finisterre, being the first who entered the Fort. 1 Colonel FitzGibbon served with the 49th Regt. at the landing at the Helder in 1799. Was on board the "Monarch" during the battle of Copenhagen in 1801 (Medal). Served in Canada throughout the American war of 1812-14; on the 24th June by a successful ruse de guerre, having only 46 men, and aided by a body of Indians, he captured upwards of 500 American troops, including 50 cavalry, with two field pieces; for this service he was promoted to a Company. In 1837, being then on half pay in Upper Canada, he anticipated the rebellion in that province and took hurried but successful measures to defend the entry of Toronto, and after three days on the defensive he sallied forth at the head of the armed citizens, attacked and entirely routed the Rebels; for this service the Provincial Parliament granted him £1000.

After the operations of a quarter of a century, the Directors insite, with great confidence, the attention of the public to the marked success which has attended this Society, and to the strong claims it possesses to the confidence and support of all classes desirous of effecting Assurances on Lives. Combining the advantages of a Mutual and Proprietary Company, and without attempting a rash competition with other offices, it has pursued a steady, progressive course, affording all the benefits which, consistently with security to Assurers and Assured, can possibly be given.

Upwards of £1,173,535 have been already paid in claims and bonuses.

The Tables of Rates for residents in Europe have been prepared upon the most approved principles, to ensure moderation and security.

Assurances can be effected with or without Participation in Profits; on ascending or descending scales; and for a limited number of payments.

The Society advance money on mortgage; purchase reversions and life interests; and grant loans on such securities and on deposit of their Policies.

An Annual Division of one-fifth of the profits is made, 75 per cent. of which is appropriated to the Policy-holders, and 25 per cent. to the shareholders; the remaining four-fifths are set apart towards the average of succeeding years. The Assured can apply their profits to the immediate reduction of their premiums, or as a bonus to the sum assured.

The last Annual Reduction of Premium amounted to 45 per cent.; so that a person being assured for £1,000 at the age of 30 is now paying £13 8s. 7d., instead of £24 8s. 4d.

All Medical Fees and Stamps are paid by the Society.

INDIAN BRANCH.

The UNIVERSAL was the first Assurance Society that secured to residents in India fixed rates and the advantages enjoyed by those in Great Britain.

Separate tables for the Civil and Military Services were originally framed with the utmost care from the records of the India House, and valuable statistical returns accessible to this Society alone. To test their adaptation to the present time, and to ascertain whether any reduction could safely be made, they have recently undergone a minute and laborious investigation by two eminent London actuaries, whose report has established their soundness and accuracy.

The attention of persons proceeding to India, and of residents there, is requested to a peculiar and most important advantage offered by this Society, viz.—that on the return of the Assured to Europe the premiums are reduced to the English scale corresponding with the age when the Assurance was effected, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO THE STATE OF HEALTH ON RETURN.

Tables of Rates and all further information will be furnished at the Office in London, and by the Agents in India:—
